ORGANIZATION-NAME

Bylaws

Adopted: DATE OF ORIGINAL ADOPTION
Last revised by the chapter: DATE OF ADOPTION BY MAIN BODY
Appendices last revised by Officer Corps: IF APPENDICES CAN BE MODIFIED SEPARATELY, NOTE DATE

Contents

Preface

The document can also include a preface that can be easily included or excluded by changing the with{out}preface class option.

Part I

Chapter Bylaws

Preamble

The ORGANIZATION was FOUNDED in Ann Arbor on June 14, 1906.

Bylaw I
An Article

SECTION I.1. A SECTION Section info

SECTION I.2. ANOTHER SECTION This section has a list. Make sure to use the itemnotoc command to avoid the list appearing in the TOC.
1. Item 1
2. Item 2
3. Item 3
Information can come after the list

Bylaw II
Another chapter

SECTION II.1. A SECTION WITH SUB SECTIONS

(a) SUBSECTION 1 The enumsubsection environment is used to indent subsections properly while continuing section numbering. By using the item command the title will appear in the text and in the TOC (provided that the depth is set such that it will show).

(b) item* will cause the title to not appear in the text but will be in the TOC.

(c) itemnotoc will not have a title and not appear in the TOC. It is also possible to have a subsub section using the enumsubsubsection environment

   (i) Item 1
   (ii) Item 2

SECTION II.2. A section doesn't need a name. If it doesn't have one, simply leave it blank.

Appendix A
Sample Appendix

Appendices follow the same structure as the main document